BRICKMILL MARKETING SERVICES EXPANDS WITH OPENING OF NEW OFFICE IN BALTIMORE, MD.

Baltimore, MD – Full-service direct marketing and fundraising agency Brickmill Marketing Services announces the opening of an office in Baltimore. The strategic location and the addition of ten new staff members will allow the company to better serve its non-profit clientele.

“We are very pleased with the addition of key professionals in the client services, analytics and creative fields. They bring considerable experience, knowledge, talent and energy to our firm,” said Chad Spannaus, President of Brickmill Marketing Services. The Baltimore office will have a sales, service and creative focus, built around the needs of an expanding client list.

The Maryland-based team recently moved into a unique office space at 190 West Ostend Street, Suite 190, Baltimore, MD 21230.

“The new office space allows us to exceed the needs of our clients as our staff grows,” said Spannaus. “Our continued growth is a direct reflection of the confidence our clients have in our abilities to deliver results. We will continue to strive for excellence and innovation as we help our clients succeed.”

Brickmill Marketing Services is a full service marketing and fundraising agency. The company serves the non-profit community with an array of direct mail, interactive and specialty marketing services. For more information, visit our website at www.brickmill.com or call 443-278-8333.
